1. Henry Brenton

born 1770 Washington county, Penn.

died 1824, Madison township, Pike county, Indiana married first, September 7, 1793, Shelby County, Kentucky

Hannah Owens, daughter of Brackett Owens, widow of a Mr. Ginn.

born

died

married second, April 18, 1816, Gibson County, Indiana

Mary (Polly) Borders, presumed daughter of Henry Borders and Anna

born

died by August 7, 1826.

Henry was a child when his family moved down from Pennsylvania to Kentucky. He grew up in Shelby county, Kentucky, and as soon as he was old enough to own land he was on his own.

We find him in 1792 on the county tax list, on through 1796 for 83½ acres in Shelby county. Feb. 16, 1796 he sold 83 acres there on Guisses creek to Abraham Jameson, deed recorded Sept. 1796. He was taxed on 83½ acres remaining in 1797, and Dec. 9, 1797 sold that land to Jameson, asking John Brenton to have it surveyed to Jameson. As early as Sept. 10, 1800 he was in Warren county, Ky. In 1804, apparently, Henry moved to White Oak Springs (now Peterburg) Indiana. He was prominent in local affairs as early as 1807, and between 1807 and 1822 he was justice of the peace. From the book "Gibson county History" at the May, 1816 term perhaps the most important transaction was election of delegates to the constitutional convention of Indiana. Election held May 13, 1816 and those elected as supts by townships were, from Madison township, Henry Brenton. The election was held at the home of Hosea Smith, etc."

Henry Brenton shows in Madison township, Pike co., Ind. census of 1820 males 1, under ten, 1 10-16, 1 45/up, females 1 under ten, 2 10-16, 1 16-26- 1 26-45. This shows nine children, we presume three were children of Mary Borders by her prior marriage.

Circuit court August term 1825, page 220, Henry Brenton deceased, heirs to estate were Mary Brenton, James Fowler received; Polly McCane widow 1/3 of estate; Patsey Brenton Borders; Elizabeth Brenton, William Beck received; Henry Brenton; Sarah Brenton infant heir, Henry Borders gave receipt. After Henry's death his widow Mary married Hamilton McCane.
